Special notes:

- ❖ Host homes are available – We realize that moving the Leadership Summit to Thursday means one more overnight for most of you... so we'd like to offer to house you in the home of a local homeschooling family. Please contact INCH at hothomes@inch.org if you'd like free accommodations on Thursday night. We need to know as soon as possible if you're interested in this option so we can make the necessary arrangements. (Tell us how many, any preferences, allergies, etc.) Discount hotel rates have also been negotiated and details are found at 'Accommodations' under the Convention tab on the inch.org website.
- ❖ Used curriculum sale - at the Lansing Center, hosted by CHESS from 3-7 pm Thursday only! $1 admission. Seller details and contact information on the inch.org website.
- ❖ "Taste of Homeschooling" - Please extend a special invitation to new homeschoolers in your area to attend. This will include unique presentations by our keynote speakers, question & answer panel, and a sneak peek into the vendor hall. RSVPs appreciated at tasteofhs@inch.org.
- ❖ Homeschool graduating class of 2010 - INCH will be recognizing this year's graduates and their families during the Friday general session. Graduates and their families may attend this session free of charge. Please encourage graduates in your area to participate by wearing their caps & gowns as we celebrate the Michigan homeschool graduating class of 2010! RSVPs to graduates@inch.org.

Those able to join us for the Leadership Summit, please e-mail the completed reservation form & group information sheet by May 1, to Leaders@inch.org with "Leader" in the subject line. *Please send only ONE RESPONSE FOR EACH GROUP--not each leader!
NOTE: 2010 Convention registration must be done separately online @ inch.org.
